Tale of the Devil: The Biography of Devil Anse Hatfield Dr. Coleman C. Hatfield and Robert Spence
You've watched the miniseries. Now own a piece of the feud. This historical volume was used as source material, along with other important works, in the 2012 HISTORY channel documentary, America's Greatest Feud: The Hatfields and McCoys, directed by Mark Cowen and narrated by Kevin Costner. This volume represents the first biography of William Anderson Devil Anse Hatfield, penned by great-grandson Dr. Coleman C. Hatfield and noted Mountain State historian Robert Y. Spence. It was edited by F. Keith Davis, who also co-authored the national best selling book, The Feuding Hatfields & McCoys. Tale of the Devil is the epic story of Hatfield family patriarch Anse Hatfield and covers his varied service in the Civil War, including his time as captain of the Logan Wildcats. It features in-depth coverage of the feud years, as well as the era after the gunfire ceased. In recognition for his exhaustive investigation of the subject matter, Dr. Coleman C. Hatfield was named Tamarack Author of the Year in 2004. For this work, Dr. Hatfield also relies heavily upon the records and written research of his father, C.A. Hatfield, the son of Cap Hatfield and grandson of Devil Anse Hatfield. C.A. also spent his adult years studying his family history and interviewing family members, including his father and grandfather.
