Born and raised in Plymouth, Minnesota, Becca Cooper is a skilled ballet dancer who struggles with insecurity, her avoid-Caleb plan, accepting her mother's death, a serious fear of ice skating and a secret that could shatter her life. Plagued by debilitating visions of a ballerina named Cassandra, the seventeen-year old only begins to discover the truth as the mystery unravels. This enchanting story alludes to the supernatural but hits the ground running with so much character, romance and emotion that the dusting of paranormal activity is only a delicious bonus!
