Amber had been away from her home in nature for far too long. At first she was only supposed to be gone during school months for four years, but then she had met Mark who was tall, dark, and handsome. He was also a premed student that had promised her the world. She moved in with him to be closer to the prestigious medical school he had chosen to attend.

Amber thought she had found in Mark what she had been searching for through her teen years. She thought she had found the sexy and intelligent man that loved her – every last inch of her ample mind, body, and soul. Her dreams had been crushed and her heart trampled upon when she came home from work to find Mark entangled with the older lady from next door.

Amber had roamed the thick green forest area outside of the hiking trails both as a child and a teenager, and today she planned to reclaim those long lost years of her youth. It's been far too long that she's been defined by the man who wanted to mold her into the woman he wanted her to be. Today she was going to be a goddess of the woods in her own right. She was returning to place she had always felt most at home and no man including Mark was going to take that away from her. But little does she know... she will not be venturing through the woods alone!
