Presidential Leadership: Learning from United States Presidential Libraries & Museums Dan Nielsen
Drawing from his considerable leadership experience and personal familiarity with the United States Presidential Libraries and Museums, Dan Nielsen takes you on a journey through the life, times, and leadership of 14 former U.S. Presidents.

First exploring the libraries and museums that preserve the presidential legacies, Dan shares his personal experiences and photographs, giving you a tantalizing taste of these fascinating storehouses of American history. He then draws you deeper into the story of each president, providing historical narrative while taking a closer look at selected leadership strengths.

Ending with a powerful call to action and simple but effective Success System That Never Fails, Dan challenges you to select and apply the leadership strengths you most want to focus on and improve in your own life and organization.

"I strongly believe that leadership excellence is the ultimate strategy for personal, professional and organizational success. Why not learn from the United States Presidents?" - Dan Nielsen
