The Idea of America: How Values Shaped Our Republic and Hold the Key to Our Future H. Michael Hartoonian, Richard Van Scotter, William E. White

At the heart of America, this book argues, is a great debate. And at the heart of that debate are our shared democratic values: law and ethics, freedom and equality, diversity and unity, common wealth and private wealth. The Idea of America shows how these values and the tensions between them have shaped and continue to shape our history.
