Hunger Pain Matthew Ebeling

Marcus's comfortable life is suddenly shattered and his whole family's safety is threatened. One evening, out for a quiet drink with his best friend, Marcus experiences such a horrifying ordeal and suffers such terrifying anger that he is unable to distinguish between hallucination and reality. As these frightening events develop, Marcus wonders if they are the result of a vengeful curse put on him and his childhood friends many years earlier. The race is now on for Marcus to trace his friends. Is it too late or can Marcus break the power of the curse before he and his family are destroyed?
