This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1918 edition. Excerpt: ... thirty-second degree Mason; attending physician of Masonic Home and Hospital ; lecturer on medicine at Nurses' Training School, St. Margaret's Hospital, and local examiner for National Hospital for Consumptives, Denver, Colo. On April 29, 1914, Dr. Mount's opportunities for valued and valuable services to the city and community were enhanced by his marriage to Miss Kate Steiner, an accomplished young lady of Montgomery, who is very active in various organizations, notably in the Federated Women's Club, dividing her time and attention between the exquisite and affectionate care of a bright baby, Bernard, Jr.. and the interests and endeavors which her prominent station in the community entails. JACOB MOSCOVITZ The Jewish race has produced the best body of business men which the world has ever seen. Regardless of the line to which they turn their attention, they seldom fail to achieve success. We find an example of this kind in the life of Mr. Jacob Moscovitz, who was born in Bassarolia, Kishnip, Guberne, Russia, in December, 1867. He was the son of Solomon Moscovitz, who was a prosperous merchant of his native town, and also a prominent scholar. At the age of 20, young Jacob decided that the new world would offer him better opportunities than he could find at home, so he came to America and found his way to Detroit, Mich., where he peddled for eight years. He was then connected with a five-and-ten-cent store for about one year, after which he engaged in the commission business. His next venture was in the bottling business, his first establishment being on Adelaide street. Here he was very successful, and after four years he removed the business to his present location at 246 Windsor street, where he is conducting one of the largest...
