Letter from an Unknown Woman(Hardcover Edition) Stefan Zweig

A man receives a letter from a dying woman with no signature and address at his 41-year-old birthday. The letter tells an unforgettable love story and the hero of this story is the man who receives the letter but knows nothing about it. She was a child when she first met with the man 18 years ago. Then she had experienced a girl's obsession, youth passion and even being a prostitute but did not change her love and decided to confess before her death-- She was lying on the deck of dismal fate, the white foam had pushed her to the nothingness...
