Teaching Albert Einstein to Fly Peggy C. Siegel

At seven, Peggy prayed for the pagan babies in Peru and secretly baptized the neighborhood Jewish children as they played together under the sprinkler. But circumstances shatter her childhood faith, and at forty, nightmares and insomnia drag her kicking and screaming to confront the secret that sets this inspiring story in motion. Along the path to healing, Peggy, a pioneering sex educator, is guided by the title dream to return to school herself. There, she enters a world she never knew existed, to tap a gift she never knew she had. Guided by mystery and grounded in faith, she learns to sense in to intuition, read auras, and run energy, bringing her profound healing gifts to light. Teaching Albert Einstein to Fly captures the mysteries of the universe with goosebump-raising intimacy. This astonishing book will resonate with seekers and skeptics, people of faith and those in doubt. Above all, Peggy Siegel's awakening illuminates the infinite possibilities residing within each of us.
