Imitation of Truth Mary K. Zenon

Living a life of truth is important because it's empowering you to be who you were created to be by God. Align yourself with truth; make the necessary adjustments in your life. It is as simple as saying that I will choose to live my life honestly before God; I am stripping away my old ways and placing the new and improved me into a destiny of truth, untouched by deceit. Make a choice to be remembered as a person who always speaks the truth with true compassion. We have to take a stand and start speaking and living lives filled with truth. No more pretenses! Walk in the true expression of you, a person who does not worry about what others think. I was taught to observe the masses and to do the opposite. Many may prefer to live lives of deceit but why not make a choice to live a truthful life. It is up to you: how do you want to live the rest of your life?
