The Truth So Far...: a detective's journey to reunite with her birth family Ms Jennifer Dyan Ghoston
How do you use a document like the amended birth certificate given to an adoptee as a legal representation of the entire truth? In this memoir, Jennifer Dyan Ghoston examines that question based on her role in law enforcement for over two decades. She shares her courage as an adoptee to move closer towards the truth and a search for her birth family. Her passion for adoption reform is evident in this book. It is her belief that those in agreement will be moved into action to create change.
