As our lives become ever more complex and confusing, we are intrigued by lives which are lived with unusual purpose and clarity. Saints intrigue us religiously because so rarely anymore do we find people of such conviction that what they believe about God shapes their entire existence. They intrigue us morally because while we seem to be running out of answers for how to heal the deep rifts that exist between us, saints somehow pick a way through the rifts and build bridges over which others can travel. For All the Saints provides a yearly calendar for the commemoration of saints - both traditional and modern - that can inspire and guide us on our journey of a life lived well before God
