Code Of Silence (Ben Reese mystery series Book 6) Sally Wright

In 1947, a female linguist at Arlington Hall, a high-security US decoding and decrypting facility, is murdered while trying to get vital information to Dr. Carl Walker, cryptologist and friend.

Ten years later, when Carl Walker has inexplicably disappeared, Ben Reese, university archivist and ex-WWII Scout, receives an unexpected letter from Carl asking for help in tracking that murderer, who's also breached U.S. security. Despite his wife's death, Ben takes up Carl's convoluted search - even before he realizes it's connected to the Venona Code (a real life Soviet spy code partially decrypted by the U.S. and Britain). To save the innocent and catch the Russian-born killer at the height of the Cold War, Ben's forced to rely again on the skills he perfected as a Scout in Europe during WWII.
