How To Crochet Crystal Dian

How To Crochet is a book written by author, instructor, developer, creator, wife, and mother of three Crystal Dian. Often times when you look at someone crocheting a nice piece, it seems as though their hands are functioning separately from the rest of their body. They are able to have conversations, watch a TV show, or maybe even read a magazine all while their hands never stop moving. If you would like to learn to crochet, step by step instruction is a must. Most people do not move forward with crochet because they get frustrated. That is why How To Crochet was written in a way that can speak to a novice or someone that has never picked up a hook. Illustrated examples are also critical for learning, which is why this book contains plenty of illustrations. But Crystal didn't stop with just illustrations the book has illustrations for both right handed work as well as left handed. This is a well written concise effective guide if you really want to learn how to crochet.
