A daughter's relationship with her father can be a special, loving bond, if the two learn to communicate their feelings and opinions honestly. Breakdowns in communication are common obstacles to the father/daughter relationship.

In Dad Do My Hair, Cydney Mickens presents a series of progressive activities designed to develop, enhance, polish, and stimulate the interaction and communication between fathers and daughters. The topics include aspects of life fathers sometimes hesitate to discuss with their daughters, providing the reader the opportunity to break new ground in a safe, supportive environment.

Mickens asks us to tackle topics we often avoid due to timing, uncertainty, and downright fear. Writing the answers to these questions avoids the embarrassment or anxiety of initial face-to-face conversations. Through honesty and effective communication, facing these issues helps fathers and daughters grow closer—even if the topic of boys always leaves Dad a little nervous!

A powerful tool for fathers and daughters to strengthen or establish bonds of love and friendship, Dad Do My Hair offers benefits throughout the different stages of your daughter's life, backed with positive, motivational quotes and phrases to inspire your own writing.
