Jesus Loves Me is an expression of one child's love for Jesus. Isabella is little girl who lives with her family and says her prayers every night. She loves Jesus. Most of the book is set in her room before bedtime, when she says Jesus Loves Me. This wonderful children's book uses rhythm and rhyme to express the special connection between a child and God. It introduces children to the possibility of having a lifelong relationship with Jesus and with God, and also encourages creativity and spirituality. Before your children lay down to sleep, introduce them to the power of prayer in the mighty little book Jesus Loves Me: A Bedtime Prayer.

Katherine Ranga was born in New Zealand's capital, Wellington, and raised in a small town in New Zealand. Her first experience with God was as a child, which inspired her to write the Jesus Loves Me book series. It was as an adult years later, after arriving in Perth, Australia, as a backpacker, when she committed her life to the Lord Jesus and became a Christian. Publisher's website:
